A seven-member volunteer board directs the operations of the Cuyahoga County Board of Developmental Disabilities. The presiding judge of the Cuyahoga County Probate Court appoints two of the members, one of whom must be an immediate family member of an individual eligible for services. The Cuyahoga County Executive appoints the other five members, one of whom must be an immediate family member of a child receiving services and the other of whom must be an immediate family member of an adult receiving services. Currently, four board members have immediate family members enrolled for services.

Board members serve a four-year term and may be reappointed to two additional terms, for a maximum of 12 years of service.
